Nomination Form

Nomination Instructions

A nomination form must be completed for each nominee. Please type or print clearly. Be as complete as possible to ensure accuracy on the ballot.

Additional supporting material such as newspaper clippings, articles, photographs, videos, letters of support and other relevant reference materials are welcome and due with the nomination form to the Museum. All items submitted will be considered a permanent donation to the collection of the Cheyenne Frontier Days™ Old West Museum. Nomination forms and supporting materials must be submitted UNBOUND on traditional letter size paper (8.5" x 11"). Please do not send any three-ring binders or over-sized items.

Each nominee must have made a significant impact on Cheyenne Frontier Days™ as a contestant, volunteer, contract personnel, historic notable, historic volunteer, family, or other.

The Hall of Fame Committee conducts in-depth research of each nominee submitted, validates nominations, and prepares a ballot for voting. The committee reserves the right to not place a nominee on the ballot. All nomination materials will be retained at the Cheyenne Frontier Days™ Old West Museum for public research and historical purposes.
